JOHNSON ARRIVES IN NEW YORK CITY

Met at Depot by Hundreds of His Race to Get Glimpse of Champion.

WILL FIGHT ANYBODY IN WORLD FOR TITLE

Johnson Will Bet Jeffries $10-
000 He Can Defeat
Him.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Nearly one thousand men greeted Jack Johnson, the pugilist, when he arrived here today. The crowd was made up for the most part of negroes, and they cheered with enthusiasm when they first got sight of the man of their race who won the world's heavyweight championship of the prize ring.

Johnson, pleased with his welcome, held an impromptu reception on the platform of the railroad station. He was greeted by delegations from sporting clubs and organizations of colored people.

The reception to Johnson was arranged by Harrison Wilkens and Edward Byrd, proprietors of a hotel where Johnson planned to stop while in New York, and the program included a parade to the hotel.

Several lightening automobiles, heavily loaded with admirers of the fighter, were waiting outside the station, and Johnson, with his immediate friends, occupied a machine at the head of the line.

The procession passed through West Forty-second street and down Broadway. All along the route the sidewalks were lined by curious observers and sports, who cheered the champion as he passed.

Several hundred persons gathered in front of the West Thirty-fifth street hotel, where Johnson went from the station. In response to repeated cheers, Johnson appeared on a second-floor balcony and made a little speech.

Will Fight Anybody.
"I'm glad to get back home again," he said. "When I left here I did not wear the crown that I now wear, and while I wear this crown, I'll do my best to defend it against all comers. I am willing to fight with anybody and won't ask the money in advance, as Burns did when he fought me. My sole purpose in coming to New York today was to force Jim Jeffries into a match. During the day I am going to post a forfeit of $5000 for a match for $10,000. I am willing to fight any man in the world."

Renewed cheering greeted the close of the champion's speech, and continued after he had retired into the hotel. Asked whether he would fight Stanley Ketchel, Johnson said:

"I'll fight the first man who covers the money if Jeffries refuses to fight. Ketchel is not too small and Corbett is not too old."

Johnson said he was going abroad again, but he did not know when.

A number of receptions and entertainments have been planned for him during the week.

Three Hundred Members
ENJOY BOXING BOUTS

The athletic smoker at the St. Regis club Monday night proved a big success, and over 300 members of the club were present, many of whom took part in the programme scheduled for the evening.

Managers on the programme was a four-round bout between Joe Clark and Kid Flaming, two welters, the former winning on a clean knockout.

Billy Olson and "Swede" Murphy boxed four rounds to a draw. These two were also welters, and are developing into good boxers.

"Peasants" Sinclair outpointed Kid Hammonds in a five-round bout. Sinclair was the victor in three rounds, and was a white wind and is head and shoulders over all the fighters in the city.

Jim Welch gave the decision in the heavyweight match over E. Wright in four rounds of fast sparring.

JUDGES ARE UNFAIR TO UTAH CHAMPIONS

Willie Schatz and Ponton Hardy, the champion roller skaters of Utah, who teamed in the six-day race in Butte last week, arrived in the city Monday. The boys are looking for a good match, and are willing to accept the exception of that accorded them by J. M. Reynolds and W. Bradford, the latter of whom is a referee and the former a referee skater.

Schatz says that whenever he competes the slightest foul he was set back ten yards, and he was set back ten yards in the last day. In the last hour of the race, Schatz says that Reynolds and Bradford deliberately fouled him, but that the judges refused to take action.

A Butte fan did not like the way things went from the game here this season, and Schatz could beat Reynolds or Bradford in any kind of a race, from a mile up to ten miles.

Schatz and Hardy will compete in the six-day race at the Auditorium, commencing next week.

BOISE TEAM MUST RAISE BALL MONEY

Special to The Tribune.
BOISE, Idaho, March 29.—Now that Boise has been assured a place in the Inter-mountain baseball league, strenuous efforts are being put forth to raise money to finance the team.

It is estimated that it will be necessary to raise $2000 to meet the expenses of the club, and there is every reason to believe the money will be forthcoming. The business men in particular will rally to the support of the club, and the game here this season is still in command here, and it is safe to say that this baseball enthusiast will have matters in fine shape when the season opens. Strengtheners is certainly a hustler. He says rowdism will be eliminated from the game here this season, and assures the people that any referee person may attend the contests without fear of going a discreditable exhibition by the players.

JOHNSON ASKS COURT

NEW YORK, March 29.—An attorney for Johnson appeared in the court of special sessions and informed the court that Johnson was ready to appear for trial on a charge which has been standing against him here for nearly two years. Two years ago Johnson was charged with stealing jewelry from him. Counter allegations were made, and finally Johnson was held for trial on a charge preferred by one of the women. It is on this charge that Johnson's attorney applied for hearing. The court set the hearing for Thursday of this week.

TRIBUNE WILL HAVE AMATEUR BALL TEAM

Boys Will Be Equipped With Nobby Baseball Outfit for Season.

The Salt Lake Tribune will have a first class amateur baseball team to play on. Business Manager Wood has completed arrangements for a team and R. Grames will be its manager.

The team will be equipped with an entire new outfit from the Western Arms and Sporting Goods company, and the boys will be among the most nobby in the city.

The suits will be grey, with blue trimmings, and the coats will be blue. The boys will be given a new set of uniforms, and a large "T" will be worn on the coat.

The team is open to play any amateur aggregation in the state at any time or place, and Manager Grames is now ready to schedule match games for all Sundays, holidays and holiday Saturday afternoons with teams in or out of the city.

The lineup of the team will be announced in a few days, when the members will be selected. There are about thirty applications for positions on the team from the best players in the city, and Grames says that he will take time in selecting the men, in order to secure the best representative team possible. The boys who will play are well known and will be a credit to the team from every standpoint. Grames has called a meeting for practice Wednesday at 6 p. m. at All Hallows college.

Pool Tourney.
W. J. Jenkins, playing for eighty-five balls, defeated G. Howard, scratch man, playing for 100, by a score of 85 to 81, in a close match Monday evening at the Log Cabin. A large crowd witnessed the contest, and several fancy shots were pulled off during the game.

ON THE DIAMOND

Ban Johnson says there is no room for "Cy" Seymour in the American league.

It is possible that Jim Delahanty, the clever catcher of the Washington team, who is having trouble with the Nationals over his salary question, may be a baseball candidate at Reservoir, Cleveland.

Mike Doolin is showing his Boston friends a letter from John T. Brush of New York which has been published, but which wishes Mike good luck and assures him that the giants always will have a good place for him.

The presidents of the National league since its organization in 1876 have been: 1876, Hon. Morgan T. Bulkeley of Hartford, 1877 to 1882, William A. Hulbert of Chicago, 1883 to 1884, A. G. Mills of New York, 1885 to 1902, Nicholas E. Young of Washington, 1903 to date, Harry C. Fuldman of New York.

Overall, Lundgren and Brown have been playing outfield for the Cubs' scrubs, taking few chances on pitching until they get in shape.

Annihilation of the Senators is reported to have bought 200 acres of land near Redfoot Lake, Tenn., a portion of which he will have fitted up as a ball park and model training farm for the Washington next year.

President Ban Johnson of the American league says that in his double umpire system this year the umpire assigned to each series will alternate; that is, the umpire will not be one set of men to work exclusively on the bases and another set on balls and strikes.

Larry Lajoie is the author of a definition of the word "bating" and all there is to it," says Larry, "is to hit the ball to a place where the other fellow isn't."

Pat Dougherty is having a lot of trouble with his ankles this spring, and as yet has developed little speed in the outfield for the White Sox.
